

Sub. : Proposal to establish a new division at Karwar

Qn. No. 638 (1700) Sri R. V. Deshpande (Haliyal).—Will the Minister for Excise and Power be pleased to state.—

(a) whether there is any proposal before the Government to establish a new division of Karnataka Electricity Board at Karwar;

(b) if so, the action taken by the Government in this regard ?

Sri J. H. Patel (Minister for Excise and Power).—

(a) No.

(b) Does not arise in view of the reply given to question (a) above.

Sub. : Provision for Resurvey under the Karnataka Land Revenue Act

Qn. No. 640 (1657) Sri Madangopal Naik (Shorapur).—Will the Minister for Revenue be pleased to state.—

a. what is the reason for not conducting resurvey so far even though there is a provision for conducting resurvey in the Karnataka Land Revenue Act once in 30 years ;

b. what is the difficulty to Government to abolish the different survey methods adopted by the Survey Department and to prescribe a uniform survey method ;

c. is it not possible for Government to adopt scientific methods (As done in Survey of India), since the measurement system of the Department are out dated and is causing delay in work ?

Sri V. L. Patil (Minister for Revenue).—

a. Resurvey will be done as per law.

b. Main difficulty is that posed by the Geo-physical conditions of the land.

c. It is possible and discussion are already initiated with Government of India for adopting upto date scientific methods subject to the limitation of State finances and trained man power.

Sub. : Unauthorised Arrack Shops in Harijanwada and Lambani Thandas

Qn. No. 644 (1464) Dr. Hegappa (Byadagi).—Will the Minister for Excise and Power be pleased to state.—

a. whether it has come to the notice of the Government about the existence of unauthorised arrack shops in Harijan colonies and Lambani tandas ;

b) if so, action taken by the Government to remove such shops ?

Sri J. H. Patel (Minister for Excise and Power)

a. Yes.

b. Four un-authorised shops which were functioning in Lamani tanda of Byadagi tq. have been seized and prosecution have been launched against the concerned.